CLINIC INSTRUCTORS

Dave Nieslen— Idaho State University Head Coach

Rory Quiller— 2008 Indoor National Champion
PR—5.65m (18'6.5")

Fred Gruber-Assistant Coach Trine University

Dave Nielsen enters his 26th season as the head track and field coach at Idaho State University with a program that continues to grow stronger each year. While Nielsen is well known for having coached Olympic Champion and World Record Holder Stacy Dragila, she is far from the only standout that has come through the ISU program over the last 25 years. Nielsen has helped 20 athletes to All-American status during his tenure at ISU, including 11 in the last four years. Forty-seven athletes have advanced to the NCAA Championships, 174 have won Big Sky titles and 413 have earned All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

Rory Quiller comes to Trine with an impressive collegiate resume. Rory is the 1st National Champion at Binghamton University (NY) winning the NCAA Division I Indoor National Championship. Rory's resume boasts being a 3-time Division I All-American, 3-time IC4A Pole Vault Champion, 6-time America East Pole Vault Champion.

In addition to his Athletic accomplishments, Rory earned ESPN The Magazine Regional and National Academic All-American Honors. Rory also earned America East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2006-2007.

Rory is currently under contract with Asics.

Fred Gruber enters his eighth season as the assistant coach for the Thunder track & field team. Coach Gruber's primary responsibility is coaching the pole vaulters.

Gruber brings over 25 years of coaching track & field to Trine. He spent 20 years as the pole vault coach at Defiance High School, along with serving as the head cross country coach for 15 years.

Coach Gruber also has a strong history of officiating track & field meets with 15 years of USATF National Certification. His resume includes officiating the National USATF Junior Olympic meet three times, the Mid-American Conference Indoor meet three times, and the Division III National Indoor meet.
